Here! A Story

Blackheath & Lewisham
Methodist Churches
Circuit Weekend 2010

This year's Circuit Weekend will explore the Gospel stories and our place in them. It will be led by Rev Phil Summers, a professional story teller and Methodist minister in Tower Hamlets. He trained at Bretton Hall in Yorkshire and has worked in schools for over 20 years as a storyteller. He told in the Telling Place's tour of Mark's Gospel and has performed with his theatre company, Applecart, at numerous venues and events including Greenbelt Christian Arts Festival. Phil leads workshops in theatre and storytelling, and has served as the Methodist Church's national secretary for drama.

Programme Details

We hope that you will be able to make all the sessions and treat the event as if we were going away to a dedicated venue, but if you are only able to do a portion of the weekend, we would be pleased to see you.

The weekend is suitable for ALL ages. Breakout/quiet space and an unsupervised crèche/play area will be available.

The booking fee includes all materials, teas, coffees & biscuits and a fish & chip supper; but you will need to bring your own packed lunch for Saturday.

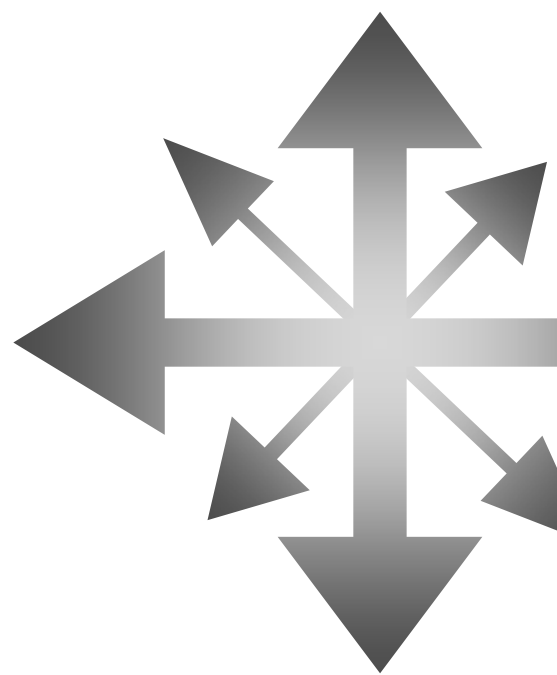

Booking is required for this event. Booking forms are available from your church stewards and must be returned to Kay Riddell with the appropriate fee by Sunday 7th March. Adults £10. U18 £1
